CONFIDENTIAL
Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/02/22 : CIA-RDP55-00166A000200040008-1

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

FROM: Chief, Language Training and Programs Divisions  SUBJECT: Progress Report for the Week 30 October - 5 November 1953  1. Arrangements have been completed with the Office of Communications for to instruct from 3 to 5 people in the Persian Language. This class will probably commence next Wednesday, and will last two hours a day for four months.  2. On 1 November 1953 several university-consultants attended an OTR demonstration of equipment and available facilities in the language laboratory.  3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included property of the Befartment of State.  25X1  L. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  class, held during the working-hours, has three students.  3. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 2h0 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	JJ		JAMEN I
1. Arrangements have been completed with the Office of Communications for a four month loan of to instruct from 3 to 5 people in the Fersian Language. This class will probably commence next Wednesday, and will last two hours a day for four months.  2. On 4 November 1953 several university—consultants attended an OTR demonstration of equipment and available facilities in the language laboratory.  3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the Problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are part of Arabian American Oil Commany. Counselor. Selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are part of the Rehartment of State.  4. The two Japanese Language classes started this week.  5. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Minty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the Language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	TO :	Director of Training	DATE: 5 November 1953
1. Arrangements have been completed with the Office of Communications for a four month loan of to instruct from 3 to 5 people in the Persian Language. This class will probably commence next Wednesday, and will last two hours a day for four months.  2. On 1 November 1953 several university-consultants attended an CTR demonstration of equipment and available facilities in the language laboratory.  3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are for Arabian American Oil Company. Commelor. Schools of Israel; Director, Islamic Center, officers of the Defartment of State.  4. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  Class, held during the working-hours, has three students.  4. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  Class, held during the working-hours, has three students.  5. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 2h0 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	FROM:	Chief, Language Training and Prog	grams Divisions to instruct from 3 to 5 people in the Persian Language. This class will probably commence next Wednesday, and will last two hours a day for four months.  2. On 4 November 1953 several university-consultants attended an OTR demonstration of equipment and available facilities in the language laboratory.  3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are by Arabian American Oil Company. Commselor officers of Islamic Center, officers of the Department of State.  4. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  4. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  5. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 2h0 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	SUBJECT:	Progress Report for the Week 30 (
3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are professory of Israel; Director, Islamic Center, officers of the Department of State.  1. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  1. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  1. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  1. The two Japanese language classes.  1. The two Japanese language classes.  25X1  25X1	Persian	Language. This class will probabl	istrict from 3 to 5 people in the
3. Arrangements have been made with the Foreign Service Institute for a quota of 10 spaces in a Seminar Series on the Near East which will last for one month and commences on 9 November. The purpose of these seminars is to provide an opportunity for examination of some of the problems related to the Near East. Following each session, selected films on the Near East will be shown. Included among the speakers are pf Arabian American Oil Company. Counselor. Embassy of Israel; Director, Islamic Center, officers of the Department of State.  4. The two Japanese language classes started this week.  6. A combined total of these two classes.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	2. demonstr	On 4 November 1953 several univer ation of equipment and available f	acilities in the language laboratory.
held after working-hours, has seven students. FE, SR and Communications are the offices represented in these two classes.  5. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of hours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	month an an oppor Followin among the Embassy	d commences on 9 November. The putunity for examination of some of g each session, selected films on e speakers are pf Arabian of Israel; Director, Islamic Center	the Foreign Service Institute for a the Near East which will last for one rpose of these seminars is to provide the problems related to the Near East. the Near East will be shown. Included American Oil Company Council on
5. Fifteen applications have already been received for participation in the Advanced Language Seminars. Interest seems to be the largest in German and French, with a few in Japanese, Chinese and Russian.  6. A combined total of 200 students are presently enrolled in introductory and self-study courses in the Language Training Branch. Ninty-four of these people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of hours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	held after	er working-hours, has term student	three students. Class, 25X1 ts. FE, SR and Communications are people are in classes and 106 are in self-study programs.  7. During the past week, the language laboratory was used for a total of 577 hours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	orre Mayar	iced Language Seminars. Interest s	been received for participation in of nours, 240 hours of which were outside the normal working day.	people ar	e in classes and 106 are in self-s	ning Branch. Ninty-four of these study programs.
DOC. NO. 8 NO CHANG  SEX DETAILS OF THE SEX SEX SEX SEX SEX SEX SEX SEX SEX SE	577 hours	o, 240 hours of which were outside	e laboratory was used for a total of the normal working day.
	S/X	TO TO TO BOOK NO. 8	_NO CHANG ET. JUST.2

JOB NO IN CLA NO. PGS | CAS GOOD AUTH: HR 70-3

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

25X1

25X1